Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

*School Behavior Problems *Juveniles who associate with other negative/delinquent/gang involved peers *Mental Health (Substance Abuse and Victimization) *Juveniles increased access to weapons *Reduction in Juvenile Recidivism

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Youth Assessment Screening Instrument for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Davidson County youth involved with juvenile justice system are more likely to associate with others involved in delinquent activities and gang involvement.

Individual Domain: Substance Abuse and mental health services are critical issues in providing assistance to youth and families involved in the juvenile justice system. Programs receiving JCPC funds shall provide appropriate access to these services.

Legal History Domain: Davidson County youth involved in juvenile justice have higher risk of committing Felony Offense and Person Crimes than the State average.

Family Domain: Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills are needed for court-referred youth. Access to services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.

School Domain: Youth involved with Davidson County juvenile justice system have increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences, suspensions, failing grades, attendance issues and bullying.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services that are outcome-based.
3. Programs that have an evaluation component.
4. Program services that detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. Awareness of and sensitivity to Racial Ethnic Disparity that exists in Davidson County.
6. Programs are being sought that On-Line Academic Option for suspended youth.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
