DAVIDSON COUNTY HEALTH AND DATA RESOURCES & LINKS

Davidson County Health Department (DCHD) maintains the Davidson County Health and Wellness Guide. This resource guide is intended to assist you in locating resources within Davidson County.

The Davidson County Community Health Assessment \(2018\) identifies key health needs and issues through systematic, comprehensive data collection and analysis. It is intended to serve as the master data resource for guiding community deliberations about the most important health issues in Davidson County and how to solve them.

The Davidson County State of the County Health \(SOTCH\) Report \(2019\) highlights how the Davidson County Health Department is using the data of the Community Health Assessment in its work. The SOTCH also includes new initiatives implemented by DCHD.
